

Moving with Ganesha in form of Ganapati in a new year is a great start. This picture shows all about Ganapati and its wonderfully fresh energy. Nothing stops him, unshakable positive and full of life, he walks or even jumps in front of all. Blessed is who knows how to connect with his energy! Ganapati Deva represents manifestation-power of highest divine purity!

The Bhajan 'Jai Jai Jai Ganapati Deva' (no. 7 Shiva Sai Mandir Bhajanbook) starts with 3 powerful exclamations of joy in the form of 'Jai'. 'Jai' is the certainty of victory, the victory of light over darkness. In this word lies the basic energy of an entire feast, the celebration of life. It is one of the magic words in bhajans, immediately changing the energy in the room.

This bhajan is a real door opener for pure enjoyment of life. It also connects us with Ganesha's divine parents Mata Parvati and Pita Shiva (Mahadeva), representing the unity of the whole universe and all its potential of creation.

A wonderful Bhajan and a wonderful way to refuel truly divine energy.

Happy Guruday! Sabeenamayi
